RAYMOND BETH
PRESENTATION AT 1:00

Raymond creates signature style Mosaic, Copper Foil and Mixed Media stain glass pieces utilizing old, repurposed window/picture frames. His unique artwork uses recycled items, shells, stones, beads and metal art. Notably, in a vibrant contrast of nature, his smaller pieces (birds, butterflies, dragon flies) still follow copper foil designs.

DANIEL BLISS

Daniel carves intricate designs into ostrich eggshells...a sight to behold! Additionally, he is a master of Linocut Prints – a type of “relief printing.” This artform involves carving designs into sheets of linoleum, applying ink to the uncarved surface and then pressing paper onto the linoleum to create beautiful prints.

KAREN STAHLCKER
AKA WILLOAKS STUDIO

Locally known for her wearable ART jewelry, Karen has recently picked up watercolor painting. These paintings are beautiful, delightful images of “nature's” most colorful flora. Additionally, her jewelry creations are unique utilizing sterling silver, copper, gold-filled metalwork, leather, silk, beads and “kiln fired” enamels depicting images inspired by nature.

ERIN DENK
PRESENTATION AT 12:00

Erin is a retired Art Therapist with a B.A. in journalism and art along with an M.A. in art therapy. At one time she attended a painting class at MCC and was introduced to “encaustic painting” which is the ability to create textures, colors and shapes with the elasticity of oil and wax. This continues to be her focus in her cold wax and oil paintings on wood panels. Erin is interested in manipulated layers of paint that create a visual landscape of space in which the viewer can enter.
